

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Plaintiff,

vs.

ISAIAH DORSEY,
Defendant.

CASE NO: 4:21CR3069

DETENTION ORDER

On the government's motion, the court afforded the defendant an opportunity for a detention hearing under the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f). The court concludes the defendant must be detained pending trial.

There is a rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions of release will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at court proceedings and the safety of the community because there is probable cause to believe the defendant committed a child pornography felony. The defendant has not rebutted this presumption.

Based on the evidence presented and information of record, the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant's release would pose a risk of nonappearance at court proceedings, and by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant's release would pose a risk of harm to the public.

Specifically, the court finds that the defendant is a member of a gang, the No Name Demons, which has been identified as committing violent crimes within the community; has a criminal history of violating the law and court orders, including assaultive behavior and false reporting; abuses mood altering chemicals; has a significant history of failing to appear for court hearings; has previously violated the terms of release imposed by the court; abuses mood altering chemicals; has limited employment contacts; presented no evidence opposing the presumption of detention; and conditions which restrict Defendant's travel,

Directions Regarding Detention

The defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or a designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or held in custody pending appeal. The defendant must be afforded a reasonable opportunity to consult privately with defense counsel. On order of the United States Court or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility must deliver the defendant to the United States marshal for a court appearance.

Dated July 7, 2021.

IT IS ORDERED:

s/ Cheryl R. Zwart
United States Magistrate Judge